§715.3

State or jurisdiction where the credit union is principally located to perform accounting or auditing services for that credit union.

- (1) Supervisory committee refers to a supervisory committee as defined in Section 111(b) of the Federal Credit Union Act, 12 U.S.C. 1761(b). For some federally-insured state chartered credit unions, the "audit committee" designated by state statute or regulation is the equivalent of a supervisory committee.
- (m) Supervisory committee audit refers to an engagement under either §715.5 or §715.6 of this part.
- (n) Working papers refers to the principal record, in any form, of the work performed by the auditor and/or supervisory committee to support its findings and/or conclusions concerning significant matters. Examples include the written record of procedures applied, tests performed, information obtained, and pertinent conclusions reached in the engagement, proprietary audit programs, analyses, memoranda, letters of confirmation and representation, abstracts of credit union documents, reviewer's notes, if retained, and schedules or commentaries prepared or obtained in the course of the engagement.

§ 715.3 General responsibilities of the Supervisory Committee.

- (a) Basic. The supervisory committee is responsible for ensuring that the board of directors and management of the credit union—
- (1) Meet required financial reporting objectives and
- (2) Establish practices and procedures sufficient to safeguard members' assets.
- (b) Specific. To carry out the responsibilities set forth in paragraph (a) of this section, the supervisory committee must determine whether:
- (1) Internal controls are established and effectively maintained to achieve the credit union's financial reporting objectives which must be sufficient to satisfy the requirements of the supervisory committee audit, verification of members' accounts and its additional responsibilities;

- (2) The credit union's accounting records and financial reports are promptly prepared and accurately reflect operations and results;
- (3) The relevant plans, policies, and control procedures established by the board of directors are properly administered; and
- (4) Policies and control procedures are sufficient to safeguard against error, conflict of interest, self-dealing and fraud.
- (c) Mandates. In carrying out the responsibilities set forth in paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section, the Supervisory Committee must:
- (1) Ensure that the credit union adheres to the measurement and filing requirements for reports filed with the NCUA Board under §741.6 of this chapter:
- (2) Perform or obtain a supervisory committee audit, as prescribed in §715.4 of this part;
- (3) Verify or cause the verification of members' passbooks and accounts against the records of the credit union, as prescribed in §715.8 of this part;
- (4) Act to avoid imposition of sanctions for failure to comply with the requirements of this part, as prescribed in §§ 715.11 and 715.12 of this part.

§715.4 Audit responsibility of the Supervisory Committee.

- (a) Annual audit requirement. A federally-insured credit union is required to obtain an annual supervisory committee audit which occurs at least once every calendar year (period of performance) and must cover the period elapsed since the last audit period (period effectively covered).
- (b) Financial statement audit option. Any federally-insured credit union, whether Federally- or State-chartered and regardless of asset size, may choose to fulfill its Supervisory Committee audit responsibility by obtaining an annual audit of its financial statements performed in accordance with GAAS by an independent person who is licensed to do so by the State or jurisdiction in which the credit union is principally located. (A "financial statement audit" is distinct from a
